

BMACHO – what’s in it for you

Blue Mountains Association of Cultural Heritage Organisations (BMACHO) seeks to support organisations and individuals in the cultural heritage field in the Blue Mountains and surrounding areas. By becoming a member, you are not only supporting awareness, education, and engagement in heritage matters across your region, but you also gain access to specialist resources and information.

Katoomba Railway Station 1882

Become a member or renew your membership today and enjoy the following benefits:

- Opportunities to promote your organisation, events, projects, or new research through BMACHO’s social media platforms and website, bi-monthly Heritage Newsletter, at associated heritage events, and through direct email distribution to a wide membership.
- Access to specialist advice on heritage matters.
- Opportunities to publish research in a widely distributed heritage newsletter and journal.
- Gain access to local history news, research and expertise through the bi-monthly Heritage Newsletter, regular email notifications of up-coming opportunities, Occasional Papers, and the annual Blue Mountains Journal.
- Advocacy to local government and state representatives on heritage matters relevant to your organization.
- Invitations to training and development opportunities through specialist workshops and seminars.
- Invitations to networking opportunities at conferences, AGM and committee meetings, workshops, and special events from other member organisations.
- Receive notifications of heritage funding opportunities.

Individual or organisational memberships available. BMACHO is a not-for-profit organisation. Membership fees enable us to run training and events and produce heritage resources for your benefit.

The BMACHO Committee 2018